Many Surprises in Patriotic Tennis

Champion of 1904 Springs First Surprise by Defeating Voshell and Parker—Biddle and Garland Contribute to Thrills—Tokio Player Eliminated in Second Round—Miss Bjurstedt Wins Exhibition Match

Forest Hills, L. I., Aug. 20.—Unexpected tennis play by some of the old champions of the national patriotic singles tournament was the feature of the first and second rounds completed after an all-day session on the turf courts. Holcombe Ward of Seabright, N. J., singles champion in 1904, staged the upset by defeating S. H. Voshell of Brooklyn, 6-4, 1-6, 6-2. Ward continued into the second round at the expense of another younger player, New York's Vattedard, 1-1, whom he defeated, 6-2, 6-2.

Craig Biddle of Philadelphia, furnished another surprise in defeating Frederick S. Alexander of New York, 6-1, 2-6, 6-0, due in great part to his heady play and excellent placement. Charles S. Garland of Pittsburgh, a comparative youngster, furnished the third surprise of the tournament by defeating Lyle E. MaMan, of New York, 6-1, in the first round and then vanquishing Karl Behr of New York, the former internationalist, 6-2, 6-4.

Seichiro Kashio, the Japanese player from Tokyo, survived the first round but was eliminated in the second by Douglas Waters of New Orleans. Kashio defeated F. B. Ransom of Beaver Falls, Pa., in three close sets in the forenoon but went down before the American expert, 3-6, 4-6, 4-6. Kashio was far from being the expert that Kumage was in last year's championship play.

John Williams, of Boston, the present champion, had little difficulty in running through the first two rounds. He eliminated Walter E. Stone of New York and L. G. French, of Boston, in straight sets, three games being the largest number against him in any one of the four sets.

The California contingent was also very much in evidence. John R. Strachan, of San Francisco, went through the first round by default and won from Elliott Binzen of New York, 6-1, in the second round. Griffin also of San Francisco, won his place in the third round in easy fashion at the expense of C. W. MacMillan, New York, and Ludlow Van Deventer of Plainfield, N. J.

The special exhibition match between Miss Molla Bjurstedt of New York and Miss Mary Browne of San Francisco, held the attention of a large gallery late in the afternoon. Miss Bjurstedt winning, 7-5, 3-6, 6-2.

Miss Browne was apparently unable to sustain the fast pace which she has set against Miss Bjurstedt in recent play.

GRAND CIRCUIT OPENS AT NARBERTH, PA.
Favorites Captured Two of the Three Races.

Philadelphia, Aug. 20.—Favorites captured two of the three races on the inaugural day programme of the Grand Circuit meeting held on the Belmont Club's mile track at Narberth, Pa., today. This is the first of the circuit meetings held in this vicinity in a quarter of a century.

Philly's Lassie, winner of two $10,000 races this year, was picked to win the Bellevue-Stratford Stake of $2,000, the feature event, but after starting the race he was finished second to Al Mack, which made a break in the first heat and finished eighth in the second heat. Bid Murray closed up on the leader after passing the half in 1:01 and beat Billy Lassie in the final drive in 2:05 1-2, the fastest heat of the day. The effort cost the mare heat and she was satisfied to finish seventh in the final heat which Al Mack won handily, finishing the race in 2:09. Mack, who set a track record at Goshen last week, made a desperate attempt to take the final heat, but after leading to the three-quarter post he was worn out and could get no better than third.

Tommy Murphy won the 2:12 pace in straight heats with But Hale, outstripping him in his field in the heat with June Bug second each time. E. O. Mauser, a Philadelphia amateur, won third money with Jay Patch. Owing to the failure of a carload of horses to arrive at the track until late in the day, there were only four starters in the 2:07 pace which proved only a jog for Little Battie, which won all three heats, the fastest in 2:06 1-4. The track was in fair shape, but a couple of seconds slow.

RULING ON PURCHASING OF BASEBALL PLAYERS
Call for Military or Naval Duty Not to Change Status.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 20.—The enrolling of ball players in the United States army and navy will have little effect financially on those clubs desiring to purchase or obtain by other means players in leagues of lower classification. The National baseball commission today issued a notice that the status of all players obtained by recall under optional agreements would remain the same no matter when the player was called for military or naval duty.

With men drafted from the ranks of the minors the draft price shall not be paid over until the player actually enters the service of the club which purchased him. The drafted player enters the military or naval service during the time he is drafted and the time he is ordered to report to the service which would have obtained his services has the privilege of cancelling its draft.

The clause relating to purchased players says: "A major or minor league club which purchases a player will have no right to the return of the amount actually paid by it for his release, if the player is drafted into the military or naval service, but in the case of the drafted player shall be stayed until the player again reports to the purchasing club and has had a reasonable opportunity to try him out and determine whether he desires to retain him. If retained, the deferred payments must be met, if released, he shall revert to the selling club."

MATHEWSON AND M'GRAW SUMMONED TO COURT
Charged With Violating Law By Playing Their Teams Last Sunday.

New York, Aug. 20.—Summonses were issued for Christy Mathewson, manager of the Cincinnati Nationals, and John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Nationals, by a magistrate today on complaint of a city detective that these had been in violation of the Sunday law when the two teams played a baseball game in this city yesterday at a concert announced as a benefit for the families of the men of the 69th New York National Guard regiment now in the federal service. The two managers were ordered to appear in court tomorrow.
